FLORIDA MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATOR LICENSE

Instructions

1. Form MU4. Each individual shall apply for a Loan Originator license by submitting a form MU4 through NMLS.
2. Filing Requirements. Upon receipt of the following, the Florida Office of Financial Regulation will consider a Loan Originator application received and begin reviewing the application:
  - Form MU4 filed through NMLS
  - Statutorily required application fee and guaranty fund fee ($195 + $20)
  - Completion of 20 hours of NMLS approved pre-licensure education course (or course certification)
  - Test score on both the National and Florida State (or state test certification) components of the SAFE Test
  - FBI criminal history background check results
  - State criminal history background check results
  - Credit report (NMLS functionality will not be implemented until November 2010)

The Florida Office of Financial Regulation will not begin its review of an application until all the items listed above have been received. Once an application has been deemed received, the NMLS status will change from “Pending-Incomplete” to “Pending-Review”. Once the status has been changed to “Pending-Review” the application will be reviewed and deficiencies will be added as license items in NMLS.
